Awesome hack account and aimbot. High ratings to aloysius @rocketleague. Rocket League play with j-tango. It's the best ambidextrous stick in the world! Fits your hand no matter if you're left- or right-handed and has controller settings for each player. Made from premium grade injection-molded polycarbonate with unrivaled feel for ultimate comfort and control. Precision machined construction + soft hand-crafted grip finish.™ Rocket League's best teleports and smart saves are now in a SE (as well as the Elite) class. Prepare for the online competition to reach the pinnacle. Short range teleports (fall-off) More blocks Improved shot lag (faster than before), aiming is not executed correctly (but works fine with the human player) No manual control of the fall-off distance of the teleport (even with manual control of the spawn point with the human player) Improved saving accuracy Longer range teleports (fall-off) Improved aiming (works with the human player) Improved shot lag Improved right/left jumping Improved throw accuracy Improved stopping accuracy Usable even with SD/DD/DL teleport So for the issue with the modified alpha, this is the result (which also works with the manual controls for the spawn point): Timeline edit: 2018-05-31: Found out that there is no way to disable that, so I've posted the fix for this issue here. 2018-06-05: AIMWARE loader: It's best to update now if you haven't done so yet, to enjoy all of the new features in AIMWARE. I've created a video of the newest loader: I highly recommend anyone who doesn't use the AIMWARE loader to use it, because there are a lot of new features and bug fixes which the other loader hasn't implemented yet. For those who have tried the AIMWARE loader: It's still the best loader for League of Legends and Rocket League, but I've found some issues. If you find any bugs, or have any other
