This section contains links to current information about the State Legislature. If you have any questions about the next session of the California Legislature, please feel free to email me at kevin.switke@utah.edu. The Program was established in 1973 to provide participants with insight into the legislative process. The program's goals include exposing people with diverse life experiences and backgrounds to the legislative process and providing research and other professional staff assistance to the Senate. The program is jointly sponsored by the Senate and the Center for California Studies at California State University, Sacramento (Sacramento State). This year's Program Fellows had a unique experience because of the Covid-19 pandemic and statewidelock-down. They were honored from the Gallery of the Senate chamber in August. If a primary election is necessary, the Republican Nominating Convention will be held August 26 through August 29, 2020. Candidates have until June 2, 2020 to file with the California Secretary of State. To vote in the primary, registered Republicans must be registered with the party by May 27, 2020. To vote by mail or fax, go to http://www.calleg.ca.gov/media/433661/primary-election-application.pdf . In a letter dated June 19, 2020, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 5-4 in favor of a challenge to Arizona's SB 1070, an anti-illegal immigration law. The Supreme Court ruling struck down key provisions of the 2010 Arizona law that made it a state crime to be in the country illegally and required police to check the immigration status of those they suspect of being in the country illegally. While the Court struck down the two provisions of SB 1070, it allowed the rest of the law to stand.

Welcome to the website of the California State Senate. The Senate is actively working on critical legislation to improve California, address issues in our communities related to the COVID-19 pandemic, and to meet the needs of all Californians. While we address the pressing issues our state is facing, we encourage you to participate and watch remotely, as we continue to flatten the curve of Coronavirus. Please continue to follow state and local public health guidelines to safeguard against the virus, and contact your Senators office with any issues or concerns. Thank you for helping us improve California for everyone who lives here. Congressional district boundaries were provided by We Draw the Lines CA. Census-block level voter registration data from the 2020 presidential election was downloaded from the Statewide Database. These data were aggregated to current and new congressional districts to calculate the percentages of Democrat and Republican voters. Welcome to the website of the California State Senate.
